Dear Judge McMahon:

We are in receipt of Your Honor's June 25, 2008 letter, and write to confirm that we share the Court's belief that recusal is entirely unnecessary. We do, however, take this opportunity to ask for the Court's guidance regarding the schedule in this matter. The Court has yet to appoint a lead plaintiff. Under the Court's June 18, 2008, scheduling Order, whoever is ultimately appointed, however, must file a consolidated amended complaint by June 27, 2008. Hence, what to do? File a consolidated amended complaint without an Order appointing lead plaintiff or wait to file a consolidated amended complaint until some point after lead plaintiff is appointed?

Any guidance the Court would be willing to provide would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

RAMZI ABADOU
